

PILLS Final Conference

19th/20th September 2012, Gelsenkirchen

Your opinion

How often have you already been to PILLS events in the last 5 years?

What do you guess – from how many countries do we have participants today?

1. 6 countries  21

2. 9 countries  71

3. 12 countries  26

What sector do you work in?

1. water board / water management

2. competent authority / municipality

3. hospital management

4. science

5. industry

6. other

Do you see in general the need to take action regarding pharmaceutical residues in waste water?

1. Yes

2. No

3. Forming of an opinion is not finished yet – that's why I'm here for.

Shall the reduction of pharmaceutical residues in the environment be regulated on EU level?

1. Yes

2. No

3. I do not know / no opinion

You personally: Which increase of the fees would you accept in order to upgrade municipal treatment plants?

1. less than 10%

2. up to 25%

3. up to 50%

4. up to 100%

5. more than 100%

Your social and political assessment:
Which increase of the fees would people
accept in order to upgrade municipal treatment plants?

1. less than 10%

2. up to 25%

3. up to 50%

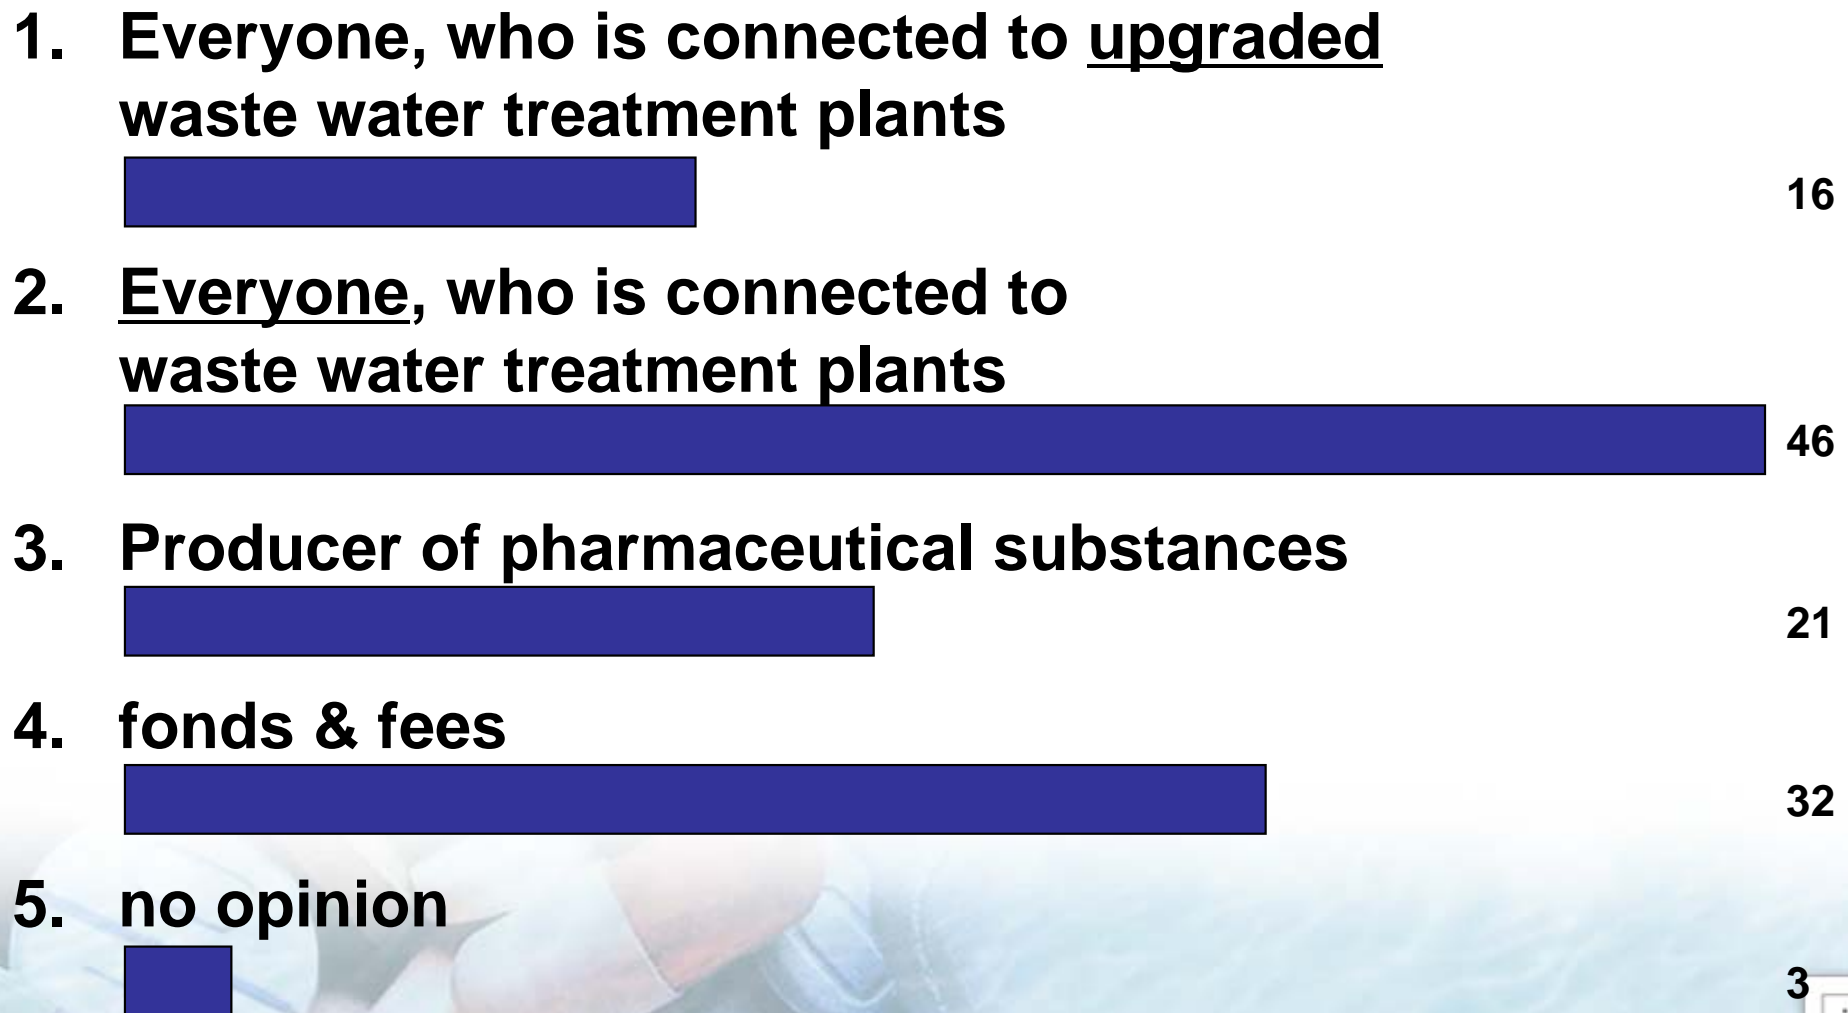

4. up to 100%

0

5. more than 100%

Who should contribute to the advanced treatment costs?

Do you have the impression that the results from the PILLS project have a transnational impact to support the European policy?

1. more likely yes

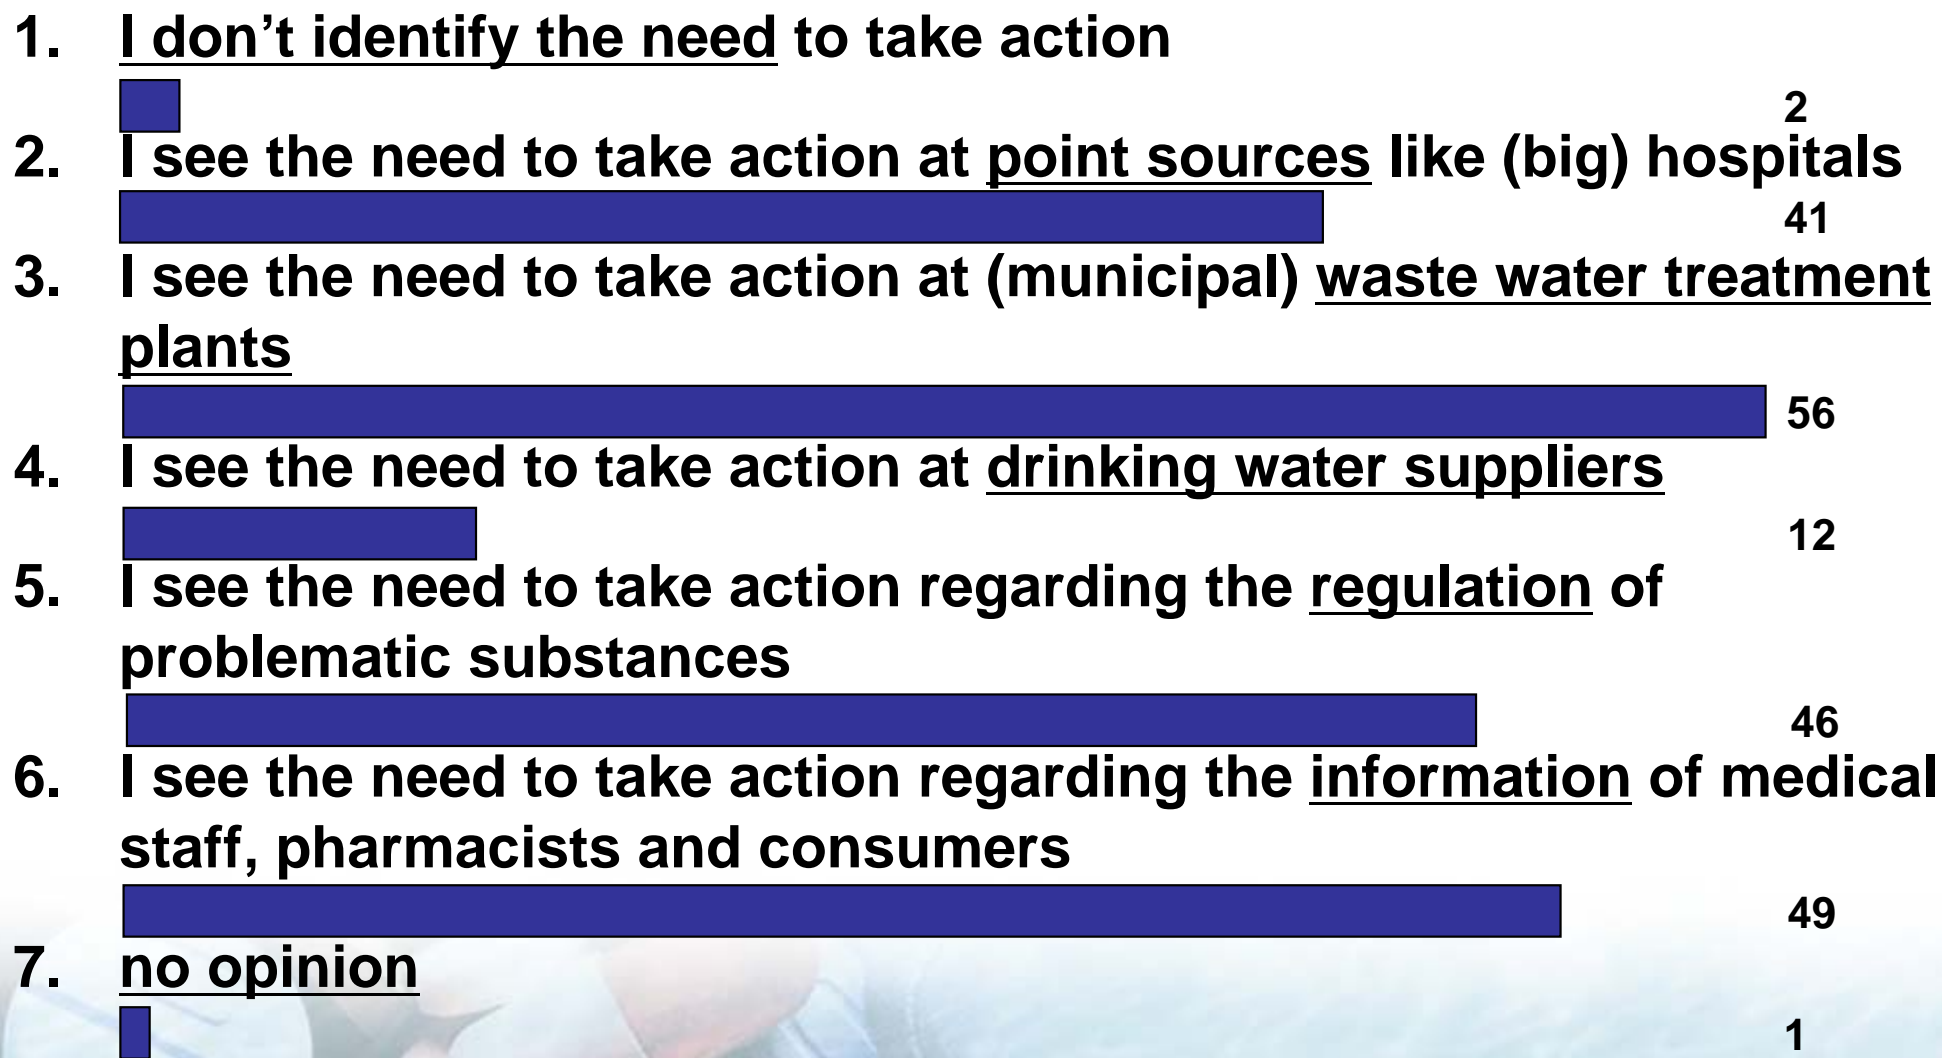

2. more likely no

3. no opinion

Where do you see the need to take action to reduce pharmaceutical residues in water?
(max. 2 answers possible)

PILLS Final Conference

19th/20th September 2012, Gelsenkirchen

Thank you for your votes