

PILLS Final Conference

19th/20th September 2012, Gelsenkirchen

Your opinion

How much time were you talking about PILLS related topics last evening?

1. nothing at all

2. less than 25% of the evening

3. up to 50% of the evening

4. nearly all the time

5. I have not been to the evening event

What sector do you work in?

1. water board / water management

2. competent authority / municipality

3. hospital management

4. science

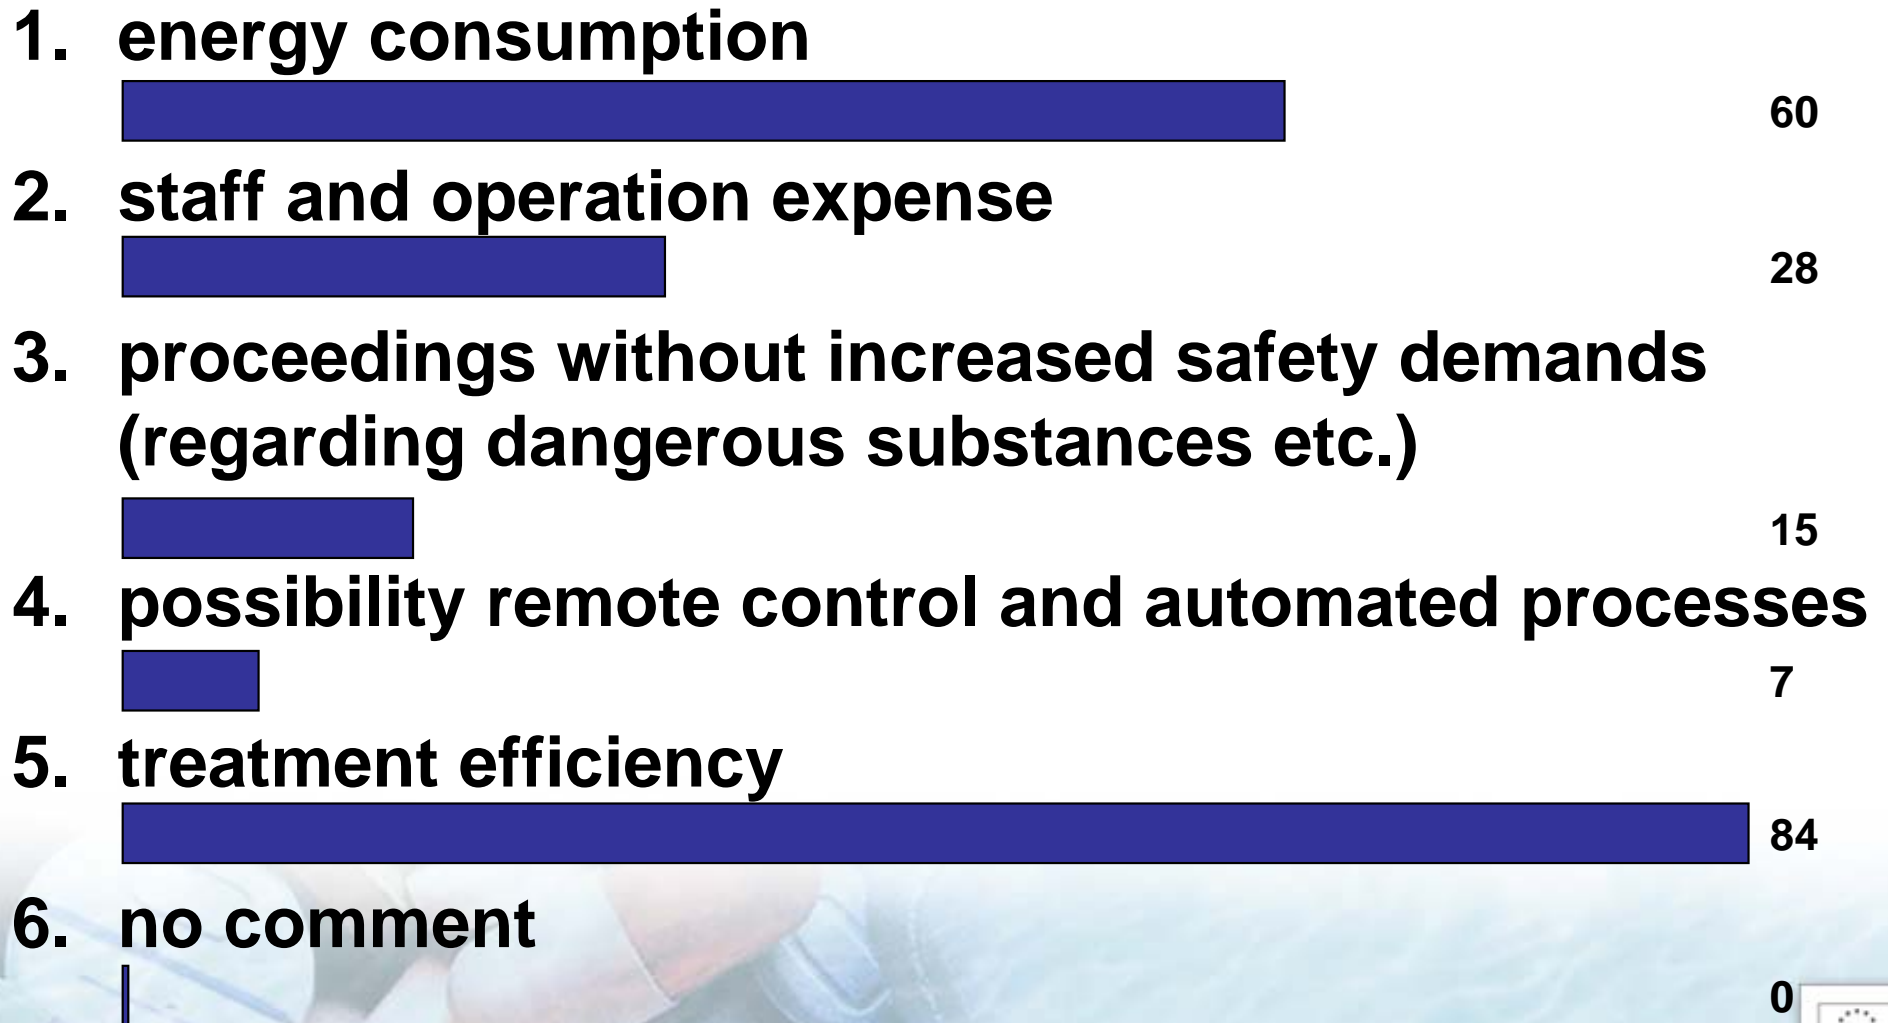

5. industry

6. other

Regarding decisions about advanced treatment technologies:
which criteria are important for you? (max. 2 answers)

Do you think that a change of behaviour possible for a significant reduction of pharmaceutical residues in waste water? (max. 2 answers)

1. I cannot imagine significant changes of behaviour.
 21
2. Intensive educational effort and media campaigns may enhance behaviour changes.
 67
3. Pharmaceuticals need legislative stipulations about environmental impact information to influence consumers behaviour.
 60
4. Changes can only be achieved by legislative prohibition.
 31
5. no comment
 1

The PILLS partners will continue with research and actions – would you like to return to another event in future?

1. Yes

2. No

3. No answer

PILLS Final Conference

19th/20th September 2012, Gelsenkirchen

Thank you for your votes